THAT'S THE LEDGER.
The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage says—
"A newspaper whose columns overflow with the advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to and building up a city or town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor will locate where there is enterprise and opportunity. An power on earth is so strong in this age as to sweep away all obstacles and this power should be appreciated."

County Clerk Claude Chinn of Fayette county has announced his candidacy for re-election, subject to the Republican Convention.

The Rev. N. G. Grizzle will probably be assigned by the Ashland Conference to Sedden's Chapel in this city, the Rev. T. B. Stratton going to Nicholasville.

At the close of the National League season, Dan McGann, the old Mayeville ballist, ranks No. 1 as First Basemen, with 965; and No. 21 as Batter, with 3125.

Hon. James N. Kenoe has advised that Mr. H. G. Rising, Agent of the Post-office Department, will be here shortly to investigate the proposed free delivery route in this county.

Mrs. Tate of Kansas and daughter and Mrs. William Reynolds and Miss Marie Louise Powell of Covington have come to attend the Casey-Day wedding at Washington tomorrow noon.

The Rev. W. F. Taylor of the M. E. Church, South, accompanied by Mrs. Taylor, will leave tomorrow morning to attend the annual Conference at Shelbyville, which will begin tomorrow.

The Fleming County Grand Jury refused to indict the parties who had been arrested for operating a wheel of fortune at the Ewing Fair. They might just as consistently have indicted every one who bet on a horse race.

Judge Cochran of the Federal Court is after the "fake" advertisers with a sharp stick. Friday he fined J. H. Shulkey $500 for violation of the postal laws. Shulkey advertised in various Kentucky papers a school of telegraphy, and upon presentation of the advertising bill, represented that he had intended to start the school, but had not succeeded. It is claimed that he got the benefit of the advertising when he did start a school later.

THE BEE HIVE

MERZ BROS. ADVERTISING is an attempt to give people early news of styles of changes in fashion, of shifts in prices, of opportunities to get GOOD THINGS for LESS than usual. The advertisements are on the people's side; tell of defects, if any; put the purchaser in possession of facts that bear out what you need; explain natures of hundreds of things that other merchants rarely talk about frankly—manufacturers' secrets, mercantile systems, buyers' rights and privileges.

In a word, the advertisement puts the buyer in possession of circumstances surrounding the advertised article; gives you the benefit of our inside knowledge regarding what you buy, and after you have bought you have the PRIVILEGE of bringing it back and getting your MONEY BACK. That's our way of doing business.

Special Request.

For advertising advertisements appearing in the columns of this paper, or when buying goods from a merchant whose advertisement appears in this paper, our readers are especially requested to state that they saw the advertisement in THE PUBLIC LEADER. This will cost you nothing, and it will be gratefully appreciated by both the advertiser and the Editor.

A few days ago Mr. W. Henry Wade worth lost by death a fine bird dog, for which he had refused $75. Some one had given her a dose of crushed glass.

Miss Corinna L. Clinkinbeard, formerly of this city, was one of the "bright particular stars" that appeared in the recent production of "The Gibson Girl" at Music Hall, Cincinnati.

Including the life insurance of $67,000 carried by the late President, his estate is estimated in value from $25,000 to $30,000. These figures may be relied on as approximately correct.

Miss Anna B. Gidding of Tolleboro was in the city Saturday, the guest of Mrs. S. S. Kay. She was enroute to Augusta to attend the convention. Today she goes on to Cincinnati.

During the conference year just closed, there were 41 additions to the M. E. Church, South, and 13 withdrawals by letter, a net gain of 28. In the entire membership there were but 3 deaths.

Yesterday Colonel C. C. Degman drove down from Springfield to meet a committee at the Fairgrounds to arrange for Friday and Saturday's reunion of the old vets. He left his horse standing near the Amphitheater, and the C. and O. Flyer came along and scared him. When he quit running the buggy was considerably worse for the wear, the harness was useful only for straps, and the general Colonel had to walk home.

BRIEF AND TO THE POINT.

Report of the Committee That Investigated Rev. D. P. Holt.

Saturday's LEXON stated briefly that a Committee of Inquiry at the Ashland Conference had investigated the charges made against the Rev. D. P. Holt, Pastor of the Tower Chapel M. E. Church at Dayton, and had exonerated him.

The report of the Committee is a vindication of Rev. Holt's morality, but questions his actions in permitting himself to be criticised.

In full, the report follows:

Your committee respectfully report that after careful and earnest inquiry, we find no ground whatever for charges against the moral character or Christian integrity of Brother Holt. He appears, however, to have manifested a greater degree of indifference to public opinion than was wise under the circumstances.

F. C. PILLSBURY,
THOMAS HANFORD,
D. F. KERR,
J. S. TAYLOR,
T. B. STRATTON.

The Bishop stated in connection with the report that the safe plan was, when the first insinuation of evil was intimated, to turn from it at once and never repeat it.

The members of the Church never accused Rev. Holt of any immoral conduct, but did charge him with conduct that was imprudent.

ALL matter for publication must be handed in before 5 o'clock a. m.

Saturday evening as the local freight on the C. and O. was pulling in at the Coal Docks near the Fairgrounds, with Colonel Ed. Flowers at the throttle, a brake-beam dropped down, and though Mr. Flowers at once applied the air, five cars were derailed. The wrecking train was sent for, and in a couple of hours all was right again.

The Dead: The Living:

WILLIAM McKINLEY.

New Orleans Phrygane.
Let us of the South mourn for him to-day, for we owe him love and reverence.

New Orleans Times-Democrat.
There is no spot on the escutcheon—there is no spoiled page in the long life-story.

Omaha Bee.
William McKinley did more than any other President to dissipate sectional feeling.

Brooklyn Eagle.
McKinley stepped into the skies from the summit points of accomplished finalities.

St. Louis Star.
His Administration will live in history as one of the most auspicious in the annals of the Republic.

Harvard Overland.
Neither our times nor coming times will see in the White House a kinder, purer, more lovable gentleman.

Mansfield Advertiser.
It can scarcely be denied that Mr. McKinley was the most popular President who has ever filled the executive office.

Atlanta Constitution.
The Nation mourns for McKinley: The South kneels at his bier; the whole world sees a weeping but united Nation.

Washington Star.
He has laid the country under such a debt as insures him a place among the greatest men who have ever served it.

St. Paul Globe.
The American character was honored by his life. In purity of mind and purpose he stands next to the immortal Lincoln.

Manchester Union.
This is no hour for an attempt at a measure of the man, who must stand in years to come as a typical American of his time.

Baltimore Sun.
Mr. McKinley was a man of strong and solid mind, if not of brilliant intellectuality, and history will give him high rank among our Presidents.

New York Commercial Advertiser.
That history will give him a place among the wisest and most beneficent and most devoted of our rulers can be predicted with absolute safety.

Philadelphia Inquirer.
When a President succeeds in practically forcing the whole world to give of his thinking he must needs be reckoned in history as a great President.

Chicago Post.
He was lulled into his long sleep by the music of "The Union Forever" as it came softly to his duling senses from the East and the West, from the North and the South.

Detroit Free Press.
The simple truth is all that he would have asked for himself, and that he has expressed best, perhaps, by Senator Hoar, who described Mr. McKinley as the best beloved of our Presidents.

Atlanta Journal.
He did more to unify his party than all of his party had done before him, and whenever he visited the South he was made to feel in numerous manifestations the gratitude of Southern hearts.

Buffalo Express.
Splendid as he was as a statesman, inspiring as a political leader, magnetic as a man, great as was his public career, the finest and the noblest side of McKinley's character was his devotion to his wife as a husband.

How Are Your Kidneys?
Dr. Hodge's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills. Stomach, liver, and bladder ailments. Chicago & N.Y.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

Chicago Post-Courier.
He has been weighed in the balance and never found wanting.

Chicago Herald.
The Buffalo address is the keynote of President Roosevelt's policy.

New York Tribune.
There is ample reason to believe that he will be a great and good President.

Ohio State Journal.
The country, the prosperity and the beloved institutions of the country are safe in his hands.

Chicago Chronicle.
President Roosevelt does not lack ability or courage. He is manly, straightforward and honest.

Chicago Record-Herald.
To such a man the country could with confidence for a wise and patriotic Administration of National affairs.

New York Times.
We are convinced that Mr. Roosevelt will justify the confidence that will unquestionably be extended to him from the outset.

Indianapolis Journal.
The Nation mourns the cruel and untimely taking off of President McKinley, but it will have implicit confidence in his successor.

Syracuse Post-Standard.
We all believe in Roosevelt. A peculiar duty and necessity now rests upon our American citizenship everywhere to "hold up his hands."

New York Commercial Advertiser.
He will be one of the most conservative, most intelligent, most capable and most thoroughly devoted Executives the Nation has ever had.

New York Herald.
The service Mr. Roosevelt has rendered his country and his patriotism above all question. His sincerity and parity of purpose have never been doubted.

Pittsburgh Dispatch.
If high principle, unspotted character, personal force and lofty aims can make a successful President the Administration of Roosevelt should have an admirable record.

Memphis Appeal.
A man in whom the people believe and trust; a strong, able, clean-headed, clean-minded, energetic man who is in sympathy with the prevailing national policies and will superlatively carry them out.

Pittsburgh Times.
Everything in President Roosevelt's past life gives the assurance that his Administration will be upon a high plane. Patriotism and a desire to truly serve his fellow-citizens have been his guideposts.

Richmond Dispatch.
With his education and rearing, and coming into a great office with the accompaniment of a tragedy, it would be strange, indeed, if he did not aspire to become a President whom all might love and trust.

Washington Star.
Whether his fate was to compel itself with Lincoln, struck down at the very threshold of a second term of office, or he was to be spared to imitate the example of Washington and retire, his work completed, amid the plaudits of his countrymen, he could safely rely on the impartial judgment of history to link his name with those of the great Presidents whom he followed.

St. Paul Dispatch.
This abundant training for law, and all other things country owes the impetus which have made it an individual and sovereign Union.

Happenings in Kentucky COMPLICATIONS EXISTED.

Sweeping Changes Were Made By the Directors of the Owensboro Street Railway Co.

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 30.—The complications of the street railway company of this city that have existed for some time have resulted in the appointment by the directors of a committee to investigate the accounts of the company since the reorganization several months ago. When the reorganization was effected through McGowan, the Indianapolis street car magnate, became one of the ten stockholders, and R. B. Rickenbacker came here as McGowan's representative and took entire charge of the reconstruction. He installed E. C. Folsom as superintendent in place of the old superintendent, employed a civil engineer and several assistants, made many expensive changes and presented a personal account that astonished the directors, who had resigned, and Rickenbacker asked for time to make a statement. A week was granted, but he still held out, and the board took over the street car line, installed another in his stead and restored the old superintendent. Folsom was then deposed, as was the small army of civil engineers, draughtsmen and other employees.

THOUSANDS ATTENDED.

A New Church Dedicated on the Spot Where Jefferson Davis Was Born, at Fairview, Ky.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 30.—Several thousand people Sunday witnessed a dedication of the new Bethel Baptist church at Fairview, ten miles east of here, on the spot where Jefferson Davis was born and on the lot presented by him to the Bethel church. The edifice cost $10,000, and takes the place of the church struck by lightning and burned last year, at the dedication of which, in 1880, Mr. Davis was present. Dr. C. D. Baran, president of the Southern Baptist Theological seminary, Louisville, preached the dedicatory sermon Sunday.

The Seasideville District.

Scottsville, Ky., Sept. 30.—In the supposed oil belt along the sources of the big Trammel creek dericks and wells will soon be numerous. In passing from Frankfort to Petroleum one sees oil springs, oil weirs and wells being bored. The Allen & Simpson Co. is operating the heaviest machinery, their dericks being 80 feet high. The machinery of the Virginia is being shipped, and this is believed to be one of the strongest companies financially in the field. Early developments are expected by all acting companies.

Pitied Gully.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 30.—Among those who peddled gully in the cases charging gambling at the Western Hotel, the gully was peddled by Physician W. A. Lackey, Second Assistant Physician J. W. Stephens, former Superior Dick Johnson, former Mayor of the city, and others. The gully was peddled by the city judge George F. Campbell and W. B. Phillips, of Bowling Green. The fines and cost amounted to $31.25 in each case.

Fired at the Preacher.

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 30.—Elder B. H. Ross, of this place, was preaching at Kenbels Springs church Sunday morning, when Bud Carmichael began disturbing the service. Elder Ross requested some one to take the young man out of the house, but Carmichael refused to go and drew a pistol and shot at the preacher, barely missing his head. Carmichael is in jail.

Painters Organize.

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 30.—All the printers of this city met Sunday afternoon and organized. The name of the union is Typographical Union No. 454. Both the newspaper offices and the job printing offices here are now members of the union. The president, A. C. Briggs vice president and M. F. Koertz secretary and treasurer of the new union.

Deputies on Guard.

Williamsburg, Ky., Sept. 30.—The coal company, which operates a non-union mine, has this week been dispossessing miners who joined the union a short time ago. The company has deputies on guard day and night.

Stabbed With a Screw Driver.

Newport, Ky., Sept. 30.—There was a sanguinary conflict near corner of Fifth and Central avenue Sunday morning, in which Mike Deaton was seriously cut and stabbed with a screw driver, wounded by George, better known as "Jack" Currie.

Monument Unveiled.

Lawrenceburg, Ky., Sept. 30.—The monument erected to the memory of the Confederate soldiers from this county was unveiled. Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge delivered the dedicatory address.

Troops Sent to Carbonate.

Bartlett, Ky., Sept. 30.—Capt. Thomas, of the Bowling Green company, with a squad of nine infantrymen, went through here under orders to reconnoiter about Carbonate and Crabtree mines.

Sold Moonshine Whisky.

Covington, Ky., Sept. 30.—Deputy United States Marshal J. A. Coleman Sunday brought to the Covington jail John M. Rainwater, of Pulaski county, seriously cut and stabbed with a screw driver, wounded by George, better known as "Jack" Currie.

Woman Killed in a Collision.

Burlington, Ky., Sept. 30.—A runaway street car crashed into a Burlington freight train Sunday and was smashed into kindling wood. Mrs. John Walcott, of Burlington, was killed and several others were injured.

Count Von Walderssee Ailing.

Berlin, Sept. 30.—Count Von Walderssee, who is ailing, is worse. He suffers from a painful sore on the leg and has no appetite. He is still recovering from an attack of rheumatism, which he contracted on the estate of his sister-in-law.

SEVERE REVERSE.

Disastrous Fight Between Troops of the Ninth Infantry and Insurgents in Samar.

COMPANY C, ATTACKED AT BREAKFAST.

Twenty-Four Were Wounded, and the Remainder, Forty-Eight Men, Were Killed.

Philippines Secured All Company's Supplies and Rifles Except 12—Captain, First Lieutenant and Major Surgeon Escaped.

Washington, Sept. 30.—News of the disastrous fight between troops of the 9th Infantry and the insurgents in the island of Samar Saturday was sent promptly by Gen. Hughes, commanding in that island, to Gen. Chaffee, at Manila, and by him transmitted to the war department. It reached the department during the early hours Sunday, and Adj. Gen. Corbin, realizing its importance, at once made it public by issuing a copy to the white house. Gen. Chaffee's dispatch is as follows:

"Manila, Sept. 29.—Adjutant General Washington Hughes reports following from Basse, Southern Samar: Twenty-four men 9th regiment, United States Infantry, wounded, have just arrived from Balangiga, remainder company killed. Insurgents secured all company supplies and all rifles except 12. Company was attacked during breakfast Monday morning, September 29; company 72 strong; officers, Thomas W. Connelly (Captain), Edward A. Bumpus (first lieutenant), and R. K. Griswold (first lieutenant), escaped.

"The News Created a Sensation." The news created a sensation in official circles. It was the first reverse sustained by our troops for a long time. Still the officials were not unprepared for news of just this character from Samar, in which the revolution started by Aguinaldo still continues. Samar is a country about as large as the state of Ohio, and the American forces of occupation number all between 2,000 and 2,500 men. These are distributed among various posts in the island, a large number being located at the more important points. The 9th Infantry, under any effort to occupy Samar, and it only has been for probably three months past that the United States has been engaged in this work. The disaster to Company C, 9th Infantry, occurred, it is believed, while it was engaged in clearing the country of revolutionaries.

"The Daring of the Insurgents." The fact that the Americans were attacked while at breakfast indicates the daring and pluck of the insurgents. Immediately after the work of the dispatch Adj. Gen. Corbin cabled Gen. Chaffee to send a complete report of the fight and list of casualties.

A well known official of the government, in speaking of this outbreak against the American forces in Samar, said he regarded it as a sequence of the assassination of President McKinley. In all probability the insurgents had received, he said, no meager reports of the tragedy, and possibly believed the shooting to be the result of some popular outbreak against the president. The insurgents, he said, were working in the flickering hope of retrieving some of their lost ground.

Manila, Sept. 30.—Capt. Lawrence J. Hoot, of the 21st Infantry, reported a severe engagement with insurgents near Candalaria, the Americans losing one killed and two wounded. The insurgents lost one killed and one wounded. The Americans captured 3,000 pounds of rice and several hundred rounds of ammunition.

A RACE RIOT.

A Negro and a White Man had been killed in Hallville, Harrison County, Tex.

Longview, Tex., Sept. 30.—News has reached here of a race riot at Hallville, in Harrison county. A party of white men Saturday night whipped a Negro so severely that he died. They then attempted to break into the house of another Negro, who shot and instantly killed Julien Atwood. Armed citizens have been searching for Tom Walsh, who is charged with the shooting, and late reports say he has been hanged. The trouble arose over crop mortgages. It is said the Negroes secured advances on their crops and then refused to fulfill the contracts.

Aged Editor Dead.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Rev. Dr. William C. Gray, the venerable editor of the interior, a publisher of the Presbyterian church, died Sunday at his home in Oak Park, aged 70 years. Dr. Gray was identified with the interior for over 30 years.

Messrs. I. M. Lane, Dimmitt C. Hutchins and C. T. West, members of the Official Board of the M. E. Church, returned yesterday morning from Ashland, where they had gone to secure if possible the return of the Rev. F. W. Harrop to this charge.

THOROUGHbred TRAMP.

The popular-priced audience likes a tramp character and laughs immoderately at his exhibitions of nerve and his comical antics. "Old How" How was probably the most famous hobo in American stage annals, and his feat of carrying out a hot-cock stove with a fire in it placed him upon the pedestal of immortality. A solo-dramatic offering with a fat and saucy hobo as its leading character will appear this evening at Washington Opera-house. Reserve your seats early.

WILL THINK IT OVER.

Mr. Arthur Goebel and Company Waiting on Governor Durbin.

A requisition asking the return to Kentucky of Governor W. S. Taylor and Hon. Charles Finley, indicted by the Goebels for complicity in the murder of William Goebel, was presented to Governor Durbin of Indiana Saturday by Chief of Police William of Frankfort, who was joined in the conference by Mr. Arthur Goebel of Cincinnati. The Governor showed much familiarity with the case and promised an answer today.

TOLD IN MAYSVILLE.

It's the Evidence of Maysville People Published in Maysville Papers That Has Made Such a Reputation For Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Standing clear and distinct, marking the difference, the superior merit, the adaptability to present day ailments, is the volume of local testimony for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. It's so different to the ordinary remedies referring to cures made at distant points which it is hard to verify. There is a reason for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills commanding home evidence wherever they are known; it is their wonderful influence in bringing up the standard of nerve force.

Mr. William Riley of No. 112 Short street, Maysville, Ky., says: "I was troubled with nervousness, sleeplessness and dizziness. I was advised to try Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills, and got a box at Chenoweth's Drugstore, and after a fair trial I can say my nervous system has been built up. I sleep well and am not bothered with dizziness. I can speak very highly of these pills as a nerve tonic." Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, M.D., are on every package.

Mrs. Kate Anderson, who was a recent visitor to Mrs. C. D. Russell of this city, fell a few days ago at Newport and dislocated her shoulder blade. Instead of returning home as expected, after the accident she went to her home at Paris.
